PEBBLE LINED GARDEN PATH

“I try to create beautiful and spiritual-oriented exterior design in harmony with the architecture and the interior. I believe that there is value in people sharing the same thoughts and sensations over time in their minds and bodies. I create a one-of-a-kind artistic space that is close to the hearts of the people who live here. I would be grateful if people living here could experience being in this space and feel it firsthand.”

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT

Shunmyo Masuno

SHUNMYO MASUNO is an 18TH generation Zen priest and founder of Japan Landscape Consultants, established in 1982, renowned worldwide for designing 21ST century gardens inspired by ancient Zen traditions.

His two seemingly diverse roles are inextricably linked. In Zen ascetic practice, an emotion of the mind is found that is beyond words. It is through the art of landscaping that MASUNO finds an avenue for expressing his emotion and inner feelings. It is a contemplative practice that involves meditation to understand the essence of each natural element before arranging them.

Achieving a balance between Zen tradition and contemporary expression, MASUNO continues to draw renewed attention to the important role of garden architecture in today's world.
